What is Taekwondo Defense?

Taekwondo Defense is a realistic, modern self-defense that is trained and used by martial artists as well as by the police and the military (for example in South Korea and Mexico). In contrast to other self-defense styles, Taekwondo Defense specifically uses Taekwondo techniques. Starting in 2022, Taekwondo Defense has been established in Europe with a growing community of instructors and clubs.

Why Taekwondo Defense?

Today there are two directions in Taekwondo: the athletic/Olympic and the traditional. Both have hardly any interest in realistically applicable fighting techniques – which is a disadvantage as many coaches and athletes would like to train exactly that. Taekwondo Defense fills this gap and is therefore the ideal complement to classic Taekwondo.

Who can learn Taekwondo Defense?

Taekwondo Defense is open to practitioners of all martial arts. It can be trained and practiced without a background in classic Taekwondo.

Seminar content

In Korea, the Taekwondo Defense Federation (TKDD) is already professionally organized. There are Dan grades and TKDD trainer licenses. Soo-Nam Park (9th Dan Taekwondo) was entrusted by Grand Master Kim Eunseob (founder of TKDD) to set up TKDD in Europe. The seminar in Sindelfingen is open to practitioners from all over the world though. Starting in 2022, the TKDD community in Europe is growing. There are already about 20 clubs that became “TKDD locations”, which are teaching the martial art to their students and conducting color belt examinations.

→ Dan / license seminar for athletes with previous knowledge of Martial Arts

We offer a 9-day seminar where Martial Artists with previous knowledge of Taekwondo or other Martial Arts (minimum 1st Kup) have the opportunity to acquire the 1st Dan Taekwondo Defense. Included in the 1st Dan is the TKDD C level instructor and examiner license (examinations up to green belt). Holders of the 1st Dan TKDD have the possibility to acquire a license and to establish TKDD at their club/school.

→ Weekend seminars for athletes with and without previous knowledge

Parallel to the Dan- and license-seminar, we offer two weekend seminars. There are no entry requirements for these weekend seminars; participation is possible with any graduation or even without a graduation. The contents of the two weekend seminars 1 and 2 will not be identical, so that it is possible to attend both seminars for more intensive learning - or just one, depending on available time and personal interests. All participants receive a certificate of attendance and of course the opportunity to expand and deepen their knowledge at later seminars.

→ Refresher and advanced seminar for the holders of the 1st or 2nd Dan TKDD

For participants who have already acquired their 1st Dan or 2nd dan in 2022, we offer 2 refresher and advanced seminars TKDD.
